

COURSE FOUR WRAP-UP AND CRITIQUE

Mode: Seminar

Lesson No. 4-31-S

1. Introduction. This lesson is designed to accomplish several important things. First, time has been made available for the faculty instructor and students to close out any remaining issues. Secondly, the faculty instructor will ask for your verbal feedback pertaining to all of Course 4, to include not only the course subject material, but also guest speakers, noontime lectures, the writing requirement, teaching methods, and any recommendations that you may have to improve Course 4. In addition, each student will complete the computer-assisted evaluation questionnaire and the handwritten comment sheet prior to 1600, 23 January 2002. Analyses of student views of the Army War College curriculum are an extremely important input to the course planning process.

2. Learning Objectives. To enable students to:

a. Clarify any issues remaining from the Military Operations Other Than War Exercise and the Campaign Planning Exercise.

b. Provide input to the Army War College curriculum planning for Academic Year 2003.

3. Student Requirements

Tasks.

a. Complete the end of course computer-assisted evaluation questionnaire by 1600, 23 January 2002.

b. Complete the handwritten evaluation sheets and provide them to your seminar chairman by 1130, 18 January 2002.

c. Be prepared to provide evaluation feedback to the faculty instructor during course evaluation discussions.

d. Be prepared to discuss any remaining issues you have pertaining to the exercises.

4. Points to Consider. Any topics, viewpoints, or issues that you have pertaining to Course 4.
