PROPOSED OSTRICH CAVALRY, 1879

Other than the brief article on p. 955 of the 2 Aug 1879 Army Navy Journal and two articles in the NY Times (29 Jun and 24 Jul 1879), we found no information on the scheme. A search through photographs and published sources on black units in the West, Army reorganizations of that era, the history of cavalry, and the history of the forts of New Mexico uncovered nothing else.

Worth exploring are the Secretary of War and Adjutant General Letters Sent and Letters Received in the custody of the National Archives. Also useful may be a close examination of the 9th U.S. Cavalry's monthly returns for 1879 and 1880 on microfilm (National Archives) Microcopy No 744, Reel #88.

OXEN SHOEING

Brief information on the management of oxen, including a concise description of shoeing techniques, appears in the manual:
