

BRETT D. WEIGLE

Colonel (retired), Quartermaster Corps, U.S. Army

U. S. Army War College
Department of Military Strategy, Planning and Operations (DMSPO)
Carlisle, PA 17013

(717) 245-3417
brett.d.weigle.civ@mail.mil

EDUCATION

Admitted to Doctor of Education program, George Washington University, in Fall 2016 with anticipated completion in Fall 2019

Master of Strategic Studies, U.S. Army War College, 2007
Thesis: “Prediction Markets: Another Tool in the Intelligence Kitbag”

MS, Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering, Pennsylvania State University, 1992
Thesis: “A Generalized Polynomial Form of the Objective Function in Flash Calculations”

BS, Chemical Engineering (and Army ROTC commission), University of Idaho, 1984

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION EXPERIENCE (U.S. Army War College)

Assistant Professor of Operational Art, DMSPO, 2014–present

- Strategic Research seminar (co-creator of first-ever course in research design, taught to 24 sections)
- Theater Strategy and Campaigning
- Energy and National Security (dual-enrollment elective with resident and distance student sections)

Director, Second Year Studies, Department of Distance Education, 2010–2014

- Lead 25 senior military and civilian permanent faculty, adjunct professors, and staff in developing and conducting four online core courses, eventually over 20 online electives (with instructors from across the War College), and the ten-day Second Resident Course
- Faculty adviser and instructor for 17-student seminar each year during six DEP core courses
 - Strategic Leadership in a Global Environment (DE2306, First Resident Course)
 - Contemporary Security Issues (DE2307)
 - Department of Defense Organization and Processes (DE2308)
 - Theater Strategy and Campaigning I and II (DE2309 and DE2310; course director of TSC II in 2012)
 - Strategic Leadership in Current and Future Warfare (DE2312, Second Resident Course)
- Energy and National Security (elective)

Director, Electives, Department of Distance Education, 2009–2010

- Developed inaugural DEP online elective program of twelve 6-week courses. Recruited and coached five additional faculty instructors from CSL, PKSOI and SSI to ensure a diverse slate of topics.

PUBLICATIONS

“Keeping David from Bathsheba: The Four-Star General’s Staff as Nathan,” paper presented at the annual conference of the International Society of Military Ethics, January 2016, and under peer review for publication in the Journal of Military Ethics (with Charles D. Allen)

“Quality Surveillance Representatives – Middle East Style,” U.S. Army Quartermaster Professional Bulletin 93, no. 4 (Winter 1993): 16 (with Jon V. Ramer)

“Complete Water Support for the Force,” U.S. Army Quartermaster Professional Bulletin 91, no. 2 (Summer 1991): 19–23

AWARD-WINNING RESEARCH PROJECTS ADVISED (U.S. Army War College)

“Risky Business: ‘Fracking’ and U.S. Army Infrastructure,” Edward Chamberlayne, 2015.

- received the Major General Harold J. Greene Memorial Writing Award

“Interesting Times: China’s Interests in the Arctic,” William Dwyer, 2015.

- awarded third place in the 2015 Secretary of Defense National Security Essay Competition; published in The Army War College Review, May 2016

“Merge and Align the Army Reserve Component,” Mark Chitwood, 2014.

- published in Homeland Defense and Civil Support Journal, Fall 2014

“Don’t Forget the Humans: Toward a 21st Century Offensive Cyber Strategy,” Josh Cartin, 2013.

- received the Daniel M. Lewin Cyber-terrorism Technology Writing Award; published in Global Security Studies, Spring 2014

“Unmanned Aerial Vehicles: Legitimate Weapon Systems or Unlawful Angels of Death?” Michael Deegan, 2013.

- received the Commandant’s Award for Distinction in Research; published in Pace International Law Review, Fall 2014

MULTINATIONAL, JOINT AND ARMY STAFF EXPERIENCE

United Nations Command/Combined Forces Command/U.S. Forces Korea, Seoul, Korea, 2007–2009
Secretary of the Combined and Joint Staffs

- Planned and managed one visit by President Bush, one Korea-U.S. Security Consultative Meeting (Secretary Gates), one visit by Secretary Clinton, three visits by U.S. Chairmen of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) and dozens of visits by Korean senior officials, from their President to their CJCS

Defense Energy Support Center-Korea (Defense Logistics Agency), Daegu, Korea, 2004–2006
Battalion Commander (joint billet)

- Accountable for procuring, storing and transporting all U.S. military fuel in Korea
- Planned the phased transition of U.S. fuel storage/movement from 1960s legacy U.S. pipeline to Korean commercial system; one of U.S. negotiators working details with Korean government and commercial entities
- On behalf of U.S. Pacific Command’s J4 Joint Petroleum Office, wrote plan appendix covering details of fuel provision to coalition forces in U.S. contingency plan for conflict in Korea
- Supervised execution and revision of international fuel exchange agreements with Korean military

Army Deputy Chief of Staff, G4, Pentagon, 2003–2004

Planner, Strategic Initiatives Group

- Designed segments for G4 video “Delivering Materiel Readiness” shown at 2004 Association of the U.S. Army Logistics Symposium, which won a national Telly Award for non-broadcast productions
- Wrote G4 contribution to The Army Campaign Plan, 2004

NATO Joint Command Southwest, Madrid, Spain, 2000–2003

Logistics Planner, J1/J4 Division

- Graduate of Operations/Logistics Planner Course at NATO School (SHAPE)
- Planned all logistics activities as member of standing Combined Joint Planning Team responsible for NATO training and assistance programs for North African nations under Partnership for Peace
- Lead planner for all logistics aspects of two exercise scenarios for NATO multi-corps simulation exercises in Bulgaria, Italy and the Netherlands
- Deployed as Chief, NATO Adviser Team to Macedonian Minister of Defense, and Officer-in-Charge, U.S. National Support Element at NATO HQ Skopje, Macedonia (2002–2003)

NATO Joint Command Southeast, Izmir, Turkey, 1998–2000

Logistics Officer, J4 Division

- Responsible Officer for 3000-kilometer Turkish NATO Pipeline System
- Conducted NATO logistics-simulation exercises in Bulgaria and Romania

Defense Fuel Region-Middle East (Defense Logistics Agency), Juffair, Bahrain, 1992–1994

Marine Fuel Surveyor and Operational Fuels Planner

- Supervised contracts for ship refueling, bulk fuel storage and fuel testing labs in Bahrain, Djibouti, Kuwait, Oman, Saudi Arabia and three of the United Arab Emirates (Dubai, Fujairah, Sharjah)
- Loaded and unloaded fuel tanker vessels at ports across the Middle East and East Africa
- Deployed as theater fuels officer, J4, Unified Task Force Somalia, Operation RESTORE HOPE, Mogadishu, Somalia (1992–1993)
 - Established bulk fuel distribution via air and ground routes throughout all eight national Humanitarian Relief Sectors across southern Somalia to support a 28-nation multinational force of 37,000 troops

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Eagle Scout, 1975
- First Prize, Master’s Division, International Student Paper Contest, Annual Technical Conference and Exhibition, Society of Petroleum Engineers, Washington, DC, 1992